

MAN, SHOT IN FIGHT, DIES IN HOSPITAL

Patrolman Has Narrow Escape at Yocum Near Sixty- seventh Street

SUSPECT IS ARRESTED

One man was shot and fatally wounded last night when a group of men engaged in a pistol battle at Yocum street near Sixty-seventh.

A patrolman had a miraculous escape from death when one bullet struck his badge and was deflected aside, while another tore through his blouse without injuring him.

Tillie Grino, 6735 Yocum street, was shot through the abdomen and died early this morning in Misericordia Hospital. De Narda de Sino, 6731 Yocum street, said to have fired the shot, was arrested and held without bail for the coroner.

Police believe that a vendetta between the De Sino and Grino families was the cause of the shooting. Two brothers of Grino, Daniel and Patsy, were arrested, but are not charged with taking part in the affray. They were held in $2500 bail each as material witnesses.

Patrolmen Morrison, Corcoran and McKenna were the first to reach the scene on a motorcycle. As Morrison stopped from the sidewalk street, was arrested directed their shots at him. One bullet struck his badge with such force that a corner of the metal insignia pierced his flesh. Another bullet ripped through the pocket of his jacket, but did not injure him.

With that the men in the gun fight fled with the patrolmen in pursuit. There were at least a dozen engaged in the fight.

So many shots were fired that residents summoned patrol wagons from four police stations.

2 HELD FOR GIRL'S DEATH

Accuse Policeman as Accomplice in Operation Performed by Woman

Following the death of Mrs. Myrtle Evans, nineteen years old, of 5437 North Mather street, in the North-eastern Hospital, yesterday, Mrs. Mary Lang, of North Seventh street, was arrested on a charge of manslaughter, and Policeman William Schall, attached to the Germantown avenue and Locoyne street station, was held as an accomplice. Schall lives at 5441 North Mather street, two doors from Mrs. Evans. Each was held without bail for action by the coroner today.

Blood poisoning caused the death of the young woman following an operation said to have been performed by Mrs. Lang on July 20. She returned home following the alleged operation and soon thereafter died. Her physician, who pronounced her condition critical and sent her to the hospital.

Schall is a widower with two children. He has been on the police force for six years. Mrs. Evans was said to have been separated from her husband.

FINDS BABY'S BODY

Two-Month-Old Infant Dead in Underbrush Near Ardmore

The body of a two-month-old baby girl, well clothed and bearing no marks of violence, was found on Monk Hill, Gladwyn, Pa., near Ardmore, by Harry Hoffman, of Manayunk, early this morning.

Hoffman, who was picking berries, discovered the child's body, carefully wrapped in a newspaper, and hidden among a clump of blackberry bushes about twenty-five feet from the main highway.

According to Deputy Coroner William P. Frankenhoff, of Ardmore, the child was apparently of foreign birth and had been dead for a day.

Police of Lower Merion Township believe the child died of natural causes and, the parents being too poor to bury it, cast it into the underbrush.

CITY HALL TEAMS TO PLAY

Water Bureau Meets Sheriff's Office in Ball Game Tomorrow

Who's who in baseball in City Hall will be definitely settled tomorrow afternoon when teams of two departments will cross bats at Cahill field, Twenty-ninth street and Indiana avenue, for the championship of the "municipal league."

The team of the Bureau of Water has won four hard games and admits that it is now the best in City Hall.

Robert E. Lamberton's team, selected from the Sheriff's office, has something to be chummy about in the defeat of the crack Federal Building team recently.

His eight children were named as beneficiaries in the will of John Krebs, 833 Germantown avenue, who left an estate valued at $23,900. Mr. Krebs, a carpenter, was fatally injured when he fell from a ladder early this month. He died July 9.

BAND CONCERTS TONIGHT

The Municipal Band will play tonight at Front and Locoyne streets. The Fairmount Park Band will play at George's Hill.

The Fairmount Park Symphony Orchestra will play at Lenox Hill tonight, the program being as follows:

- March of the Toys, from "Toiland"
- Overture "Scherzo"
- Waltz "The Blue Bird"

MISSING BOY FOUND

Frank Sykes, Cape May, Brought Home by Sheriff

Frank Sykes, the sixteen-year-old farmer boy who disappeared a week ago and was thought drowned or murdered returned to his home today at Cape May in company of Sheriff Mead Tomlin, of Cape May County.

Sheriff Tomlin, it is intimated, will not let the boy remain at home unless given assurance that he will be treated kindly by his father, Arthur Sykes, a farmer at Fishing Creek. The Sykes family formerly lived at 6831 Race street, this city.

Frank, the son, according to Sheriff Tomlin, ran away from home once before. The Sheriff refused from the first to accept the theory that the boy had been murdered.

Arthur Sykes, the father, says he had many enemies in the neighborhood. Other farmers living nearby say the man is unpopular because during the gunning season he guards his farm against trespassers with a shotgun.

Young Sykes disappeared after he had been sent into the woods to cut some bean poles. His axe, stained with blood, was found under some bushes. The Sheriff believes the boy killed a snake or a small animal with it before he left.

UNABLE TO FIND BULLET

X-Ray Fails to Locate Lead in Woman Who Was Shot by Husband

An X-ray examination yesterday at St. Luke's Hospital failed to locate the bullet which William Eckert fired into the left breast of his young wife Saturday night before shooting himself at the home of his wife's parents, 1628 Stanb street. The woman is expected to recover, and Eckert also is believed out of danger.

Search for the bullet will be made today in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Coull, where the shooting occurred, in the thought it may have lodged in the furniture after striking the woman.

KILLED TRAINING ROOKIES

Philadelphian Accidentally Shoots Himself at Revolver Instruction

Mrs. Margaret Cosgrove, a widow, of 1108 Oregon avenue, has been notified by the War Department that her son George, attached to Troop A, Sixth Cavalry, at Camp McClellan, Annapolis, Md., accidentally shot and killed himself while instructing a squad of rookies in the use of a revolver.

Word of his death came to Mrs. Cosgrove soon after she had received a letter from her son that he was expecting an honorable discharge soon and wanted to return home.

Private Cosgrove formerly was a pupil at St. Monica's Parochial School, Eighteenth and Ritten streets.

TO HEAR EQUITY SUIT

Kirschbaum Company Brings Action Against Union

Judge Rogers in Common Pleas Court No. 2 today announced he is ready to hear testimony in the equity suit brought by A. B. Kirschbaum Company, clothing manufacturer, against the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

The court, July 14, issued a temporary injunction restraining the association's officers, members and delegates from interfering with or intimidating the company's employees. The association wants to unionize the company's shops.

The defendants include Sidney Hillman, general president of the association; Joseph Schlosberg, general secretary; Lazarus Marowitz, N. Koshowsky, Ariso D. Cavalieri and Filippo De Luca.

DRY AGENTS GET HIM

Saloonman Who Laughed at Them Three Months Ago Held in $1000

Francis McKeown, proprietor of a saloon at 1901 Germantown avenue, was held in $1000 bail for court by Commissioner Manly today, charged with selling and illegally possessing liquor.

Three months ago, when prohibition agents were conducting raids in that section, McKeown is said to have laughed at their efforts to obtain evidence. He was held in $1000 bail, a special agent, told McKeown at that time, he testified today, that his place would ultimately be raided.

Frank Haines, owner of a saloon at Germantown avenue and Locoyne street, was also held in $1000 bail on the same charge as McKeown.

Injured by Doctor's Car

Louis Feidler, 108 Markle street, Manayunk, is in the Memorial Hospital with a fractured skull and other injuries after being struck by an automobile last night in Ridge avenue, just over the Montgomery County line in Upper Roxborough. Feidler stopped behind a passing motorcar into the path of a machine driven by Dr. S. E. Biddle, 5809 Chester avenue.

WOMAN IS SAVED BY FEIGNING DEATH

Man Who Later Killed Himself Shot at Her Four Times

FIGHT ON CLEMENTINE ST.

A dispute that began when the former owner of a cigar store at 2620 Clementine street refused to hasten his removal, led to a suicide and an attempted murder early last night.

Mrs. Mary Proca, forty-four years old, told police she bought the store two days ago from Paul Chirnski, who agreed to vacate at once. As he had not done so last night, Mrs. Proca remonstrated with him.

Chirnski had made all plans for moving from the house today with his wife and two children and was taking the screws out of a medicine chest when the argument started. His family had gone for a walk several minutes before.

"What's the matter, are you nervous because I'm still here?" Chirnski is reported to have said. "If you are I'll give you something to cure it."

Then he suddenly dashed upstairs and returned with a revolver. Standing at one end of the store he fired four shots at Mrs. Proca, who had the presence of mind to fall behind the counter and feign death.

A moment later Mrs. Proca, crouching beneath the counter, heard two shots from the rear room and thought that Chirnski had killed her ten-month-old baby. She screamed and fell unconscious on the floor in a faint.

The woman's cries attracted attention of police, who discovered Chirnski lying on the floor dead with two bullet wounds in his chest.

SHORT CROPS IN RUSSIA

Optimistic reports as to crop conditions in Russia are contradicted by prominent physicians, who say next harvest will be made on one-eighth of usual quality. AUTO'S VICTIM IMPROVING

William Ewing Is Injured When Wheel Comes Off Racing Car

William Ewing, 336 South Forty-second street, who was injured Sunday when a wheel of an automobile came off near Doylestown, is reported as slightly improved by physicians at the Presbyterian Hospital.

Ewing was riding in the racing car of Henry Newell, clubman of Doylestown, when the machine attempted to pass another car near Gardenville, five miles from Doylestown. A front wheel was thrown off and both men were hurled from the car.

Ewing suffered a possible fracture of the skull and internal injuries. Newell was less seriously injured. Ewing will be removed to the home of his mother at 4106 Baltimore avenue as soon as his condition permits.

CHILD SCALDED IN TUB

Mildred Ingram, colored, nine months old, was severely scalded when she fell into a tub of boiling water in her home at 2028 Saunders avenue, Camden, early today. The baby's mother had set the tub on the kitchen floor, intending to wash clothes. The infant crawled over the edge and was completely immersed. She was taken to the Cooper Hospital.
